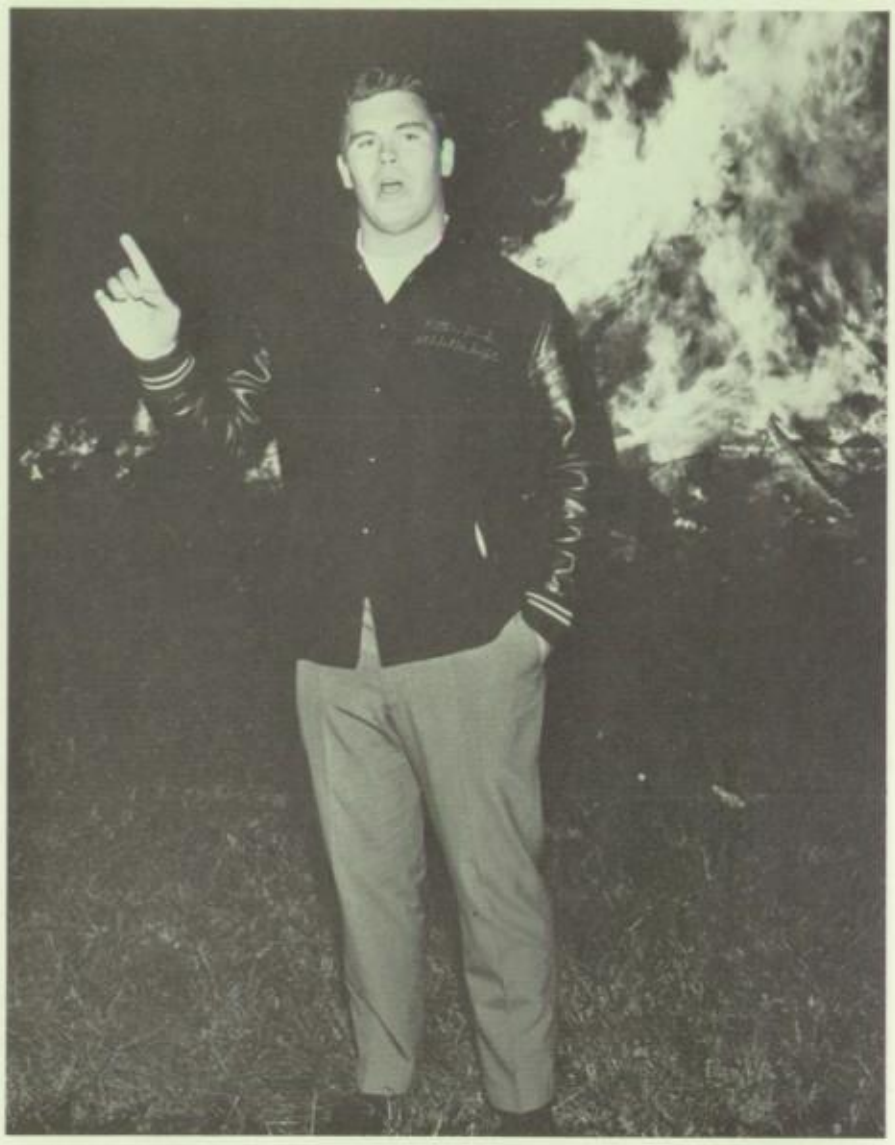
HOMECOMING FESTIVITIES BEGIN



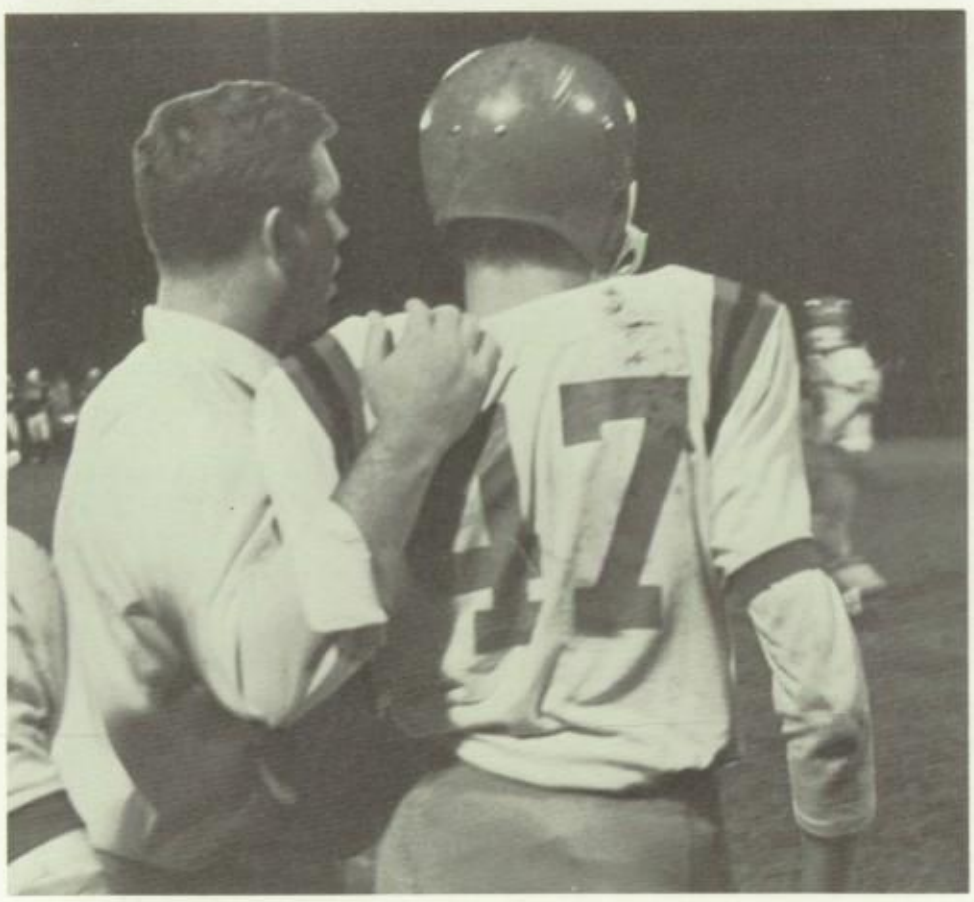
Homecoming 1970 began with an exciting parade which led to the traditional bonfire and pep rally at the high school. "Trooper Terry" obviously gave the crowd and the team the inspiration necessary for a resounding victory.

A RADIANT QUEEN IS CROWNED

QUEEN CANDIDATES AND ESCORTS: Mark Malone, Susie Childs, Alan Gull, Jane Courtney, Chip Woodworth, Sharon Yeoman, Bruce Wood, Debbie Kellerman, Denny Sayler, Debbie Frantz.

Mark Dill, Senior Class President, crowns the 1970 Homecoming Queen, Jane Courtney.

This year's Homecoming reached its peak with the crowning of the 1970 Homecoming Queen Jane Courtney. The lovely Queen graciously accepted her crown and bouquet from Senior Class President Mark Dill.



Homecoming 1970 ended on a jubilant note as the Bombers overpowered the Knox Redskins 27-12. The team then celebrated their triumph along with the student body and Queen at a "Victory Ball." The Homecoming game was dedicated to Mr. Jerry Strole, a former coach and loyal Bomber fan. Mr. Strole was associated with Indiana athletics for a number of years.

Although scant and lacking depth, the Bombers put on a valiant effort to bring their town and school another winning season. Even though there was a general feeling of apathy among the students, the team carried on the proud football tradition prevalent in Rensselaer for many years.

The season's opening spirits were dampened by a loss to Twin Lakes. However, the Bombers bounced back and came home victorious against arch rivals Delphi and Benton Central. North Judson with an all around strong athletic program this year downed our boys the following week. The South Newton game proved to be a thriller as "Trooper Terry's" men managed to tie the Rebels in the closing seconds. Victory Road was briefly interrupted by a loss to Central Catholic, but the Bombers quickly bounced back to defeat Knox for a happy Homecoming and crushed a weak North Newton.

In their debut at Bomber Stadium, Culver's cadets and team conquered their opponents in battle. The rather dismal season ended with a disastorous loss to an inferior but fired up Kankakee Valley.

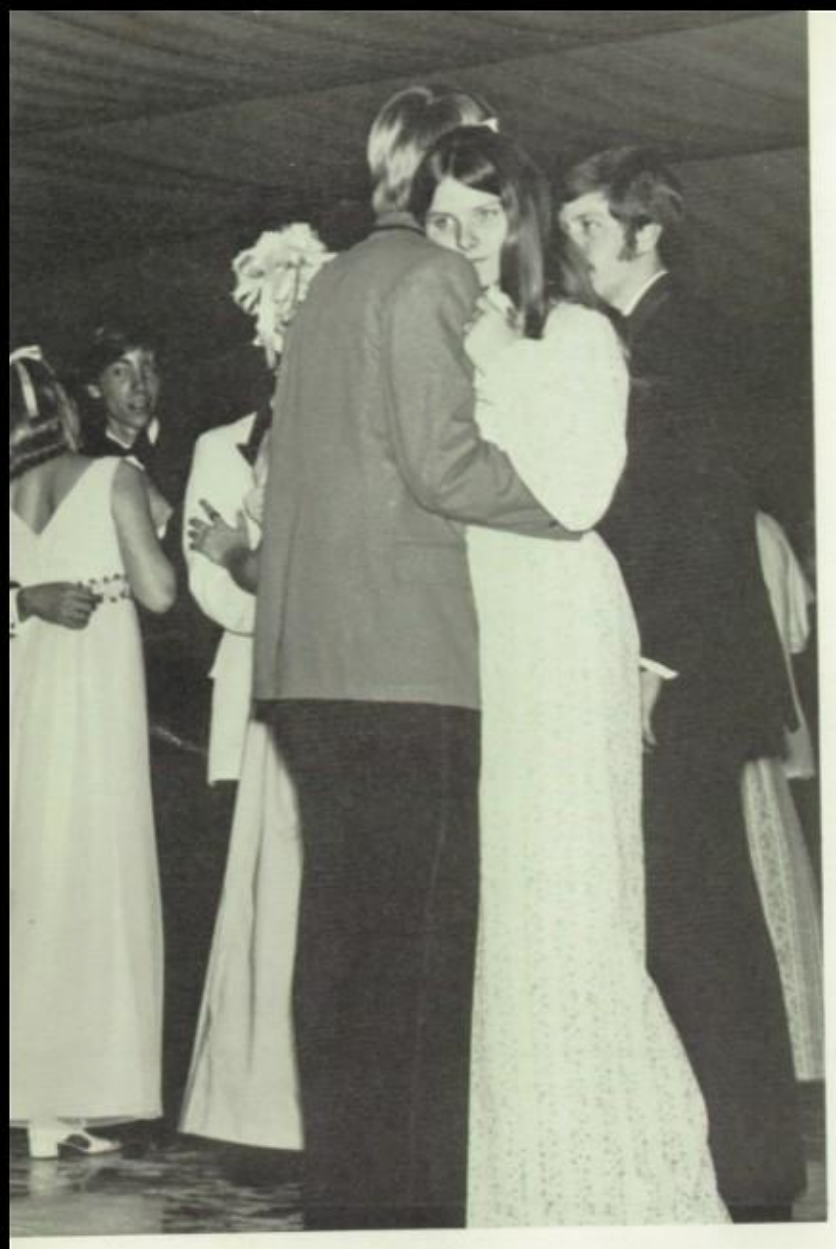
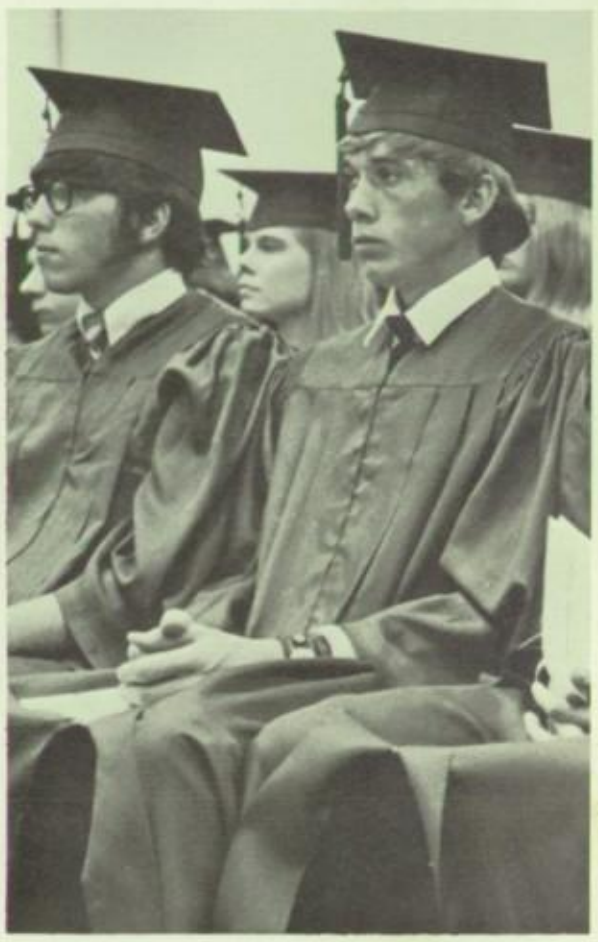
"ALICE IS HOSTESS FOR AN EVENING IN WONDERLAND"

1971 Prom Queen Sharon Yeoman and King Bill Webb

THE ROYAL FAMILY OF THE 1971 PROM: Prince Scott Parmele, King Bill Webb, Queen Sharon Yeoman, Princess Patti Piatt.



"WE'VE ONLY JUST BEGUN"



We dedicate this yearbook to Patrick N. Brown, a 1970 graduate of Rensselaer Central High School. Pat worked on the CHAOS staff for two years serving as art editor. He did an outstanding job, and his laughter, wit, and sense of humor brought enjoyment to the people he worked with. Pat was also active in other clubs and organizations. Being a good student, he studied and still had time to be everyone's friend. Everyone who knew Pat will always remember him as a great and courageous person, and he should be an inspiration to us all.

For what is it to die but to stand naked in the wind and to melt into the sun?

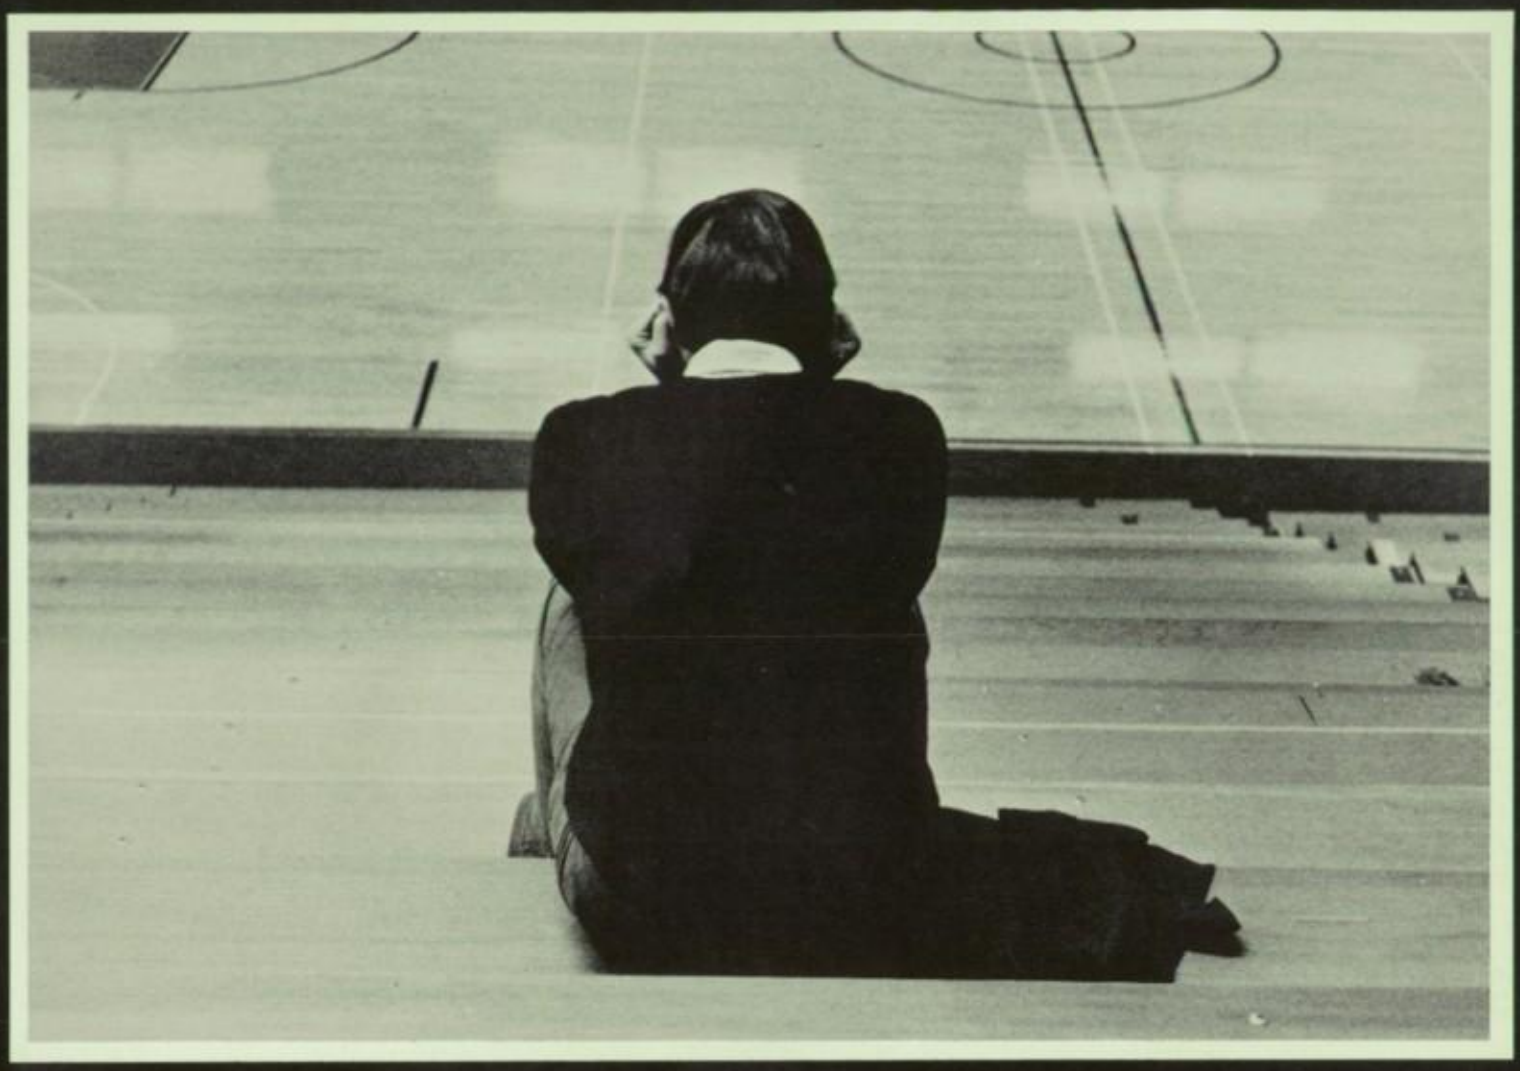
And what is it to cease breathing, but to free the breath from its restless tides, that it may rise and expand and seek God unencumbered?

Only when you drink from the river of silence shall you indeed sing.

And when you have reached the mountain top, then you shall begin to climb.

And when the earth shall claim your limbs, then shall you truly dance.

Kahlil Gibran
THE PROPHET



Let not the waves of the sea separate us now, and the years you have spent in our midst become a memory.

You have walked among us a spirit, and your shadow has been a light upon our faces.

Much have we loved you. But speechless was our love, and with veils has it been veiled.

Yet now it cries aloud unto you, and would stand revealed before you.

And ever has it been that love knows not its own depth until the hour of separation.

Kahlil Gibran
THE PROPHET
